SIGHTS AROUND OREGON

THE COLUMBIA GORGE & HOOD RIVER:

Drive along the OR/WA border and the mighty Columbia River. Stop at Multnomah Falls with a permit to see the 627ft drop. You can view it from the bottom, or hike up to the top! The trail is paved and steep at points, but is a moderate hiking level. You can also see it from I-84 while driving past. Stop for Ice cream at Eastwind Drive-In at Cascade Locks, a small berg in the gorge. End at the town of Hood River where it's fun to watch the kite surfers on the Columbia. MANY amazing restaurants, breweries, bars, and shopping.

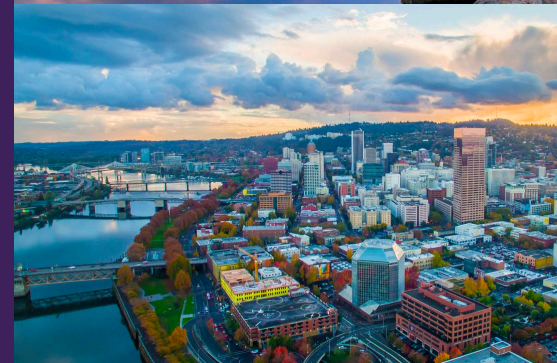

MT HOOD:

A drive up the mountain offers so much PNW beauty. Timberline Lodge is a CCC built old school lodge, The have lovely cocktails and gorgeous views and it is free to walk around. The exterior of the lodge was a filming location for "The Shining". Great skiing in the winter, otherwise lots of beautiful hikes. We suggest the Mirror Lake trail or Ramona Falls.

PORTLAND:

Portland was just named the #1 Best Foodie City in America! It's known for its food trucks, parks, bridges and bicycle paths, as well as for its eco-friendliness and its microbreweries and coffeehouses. Iconic Washington Park encompasses sites from the formal Japanese Garden (gorgeous!) to the Oregon Zoo. The Portland Art Museum and OMSI are our best museums in the city. Portland hosts thriving art, theater, and music scenes as well. Just like any other city in America, Portland is currently experiencing recent saftety concerns due to excess homelessness in certain areas, however, lots of the city is still plenty clean, safe, and fun to visit! If you want to explore the city, we suggest checking out the Nobb Hill, The Pearl District, Sellwood, Alberta Arts District, Hawthorne, and 23rd Ave. If you want an amazing dinner experience with the best views, we reccomend Portland City Grill for traditional american food and Departure for Japanese food, both or located downtown.

Portland

CENTRAL OREGON:

Sisters, Oregon

The town of Sisters is a fun western-themed town with plenty of dining options and hiking. If you are passing through, definitely stop at Sisters Coffee Company!

Bend, Oregon

Bend is a great high desert city 3 hours from Portland with lots of adventure (think rafting, paddleboarding, and other river sports), fun restaurants, and great breweries. Smith Rock is a gorgeous natural rock formation that is cool to see. Lots of people go hiking, rock climbing, and camping here. We also suggest checking out The High Desert Museum if you travel this way. Tons of great hikes in this general area, keep in mind they are less forested hikes, and more mountainous terrain, but the views are breathtaking.

THE COAST:

There is SO MUCH to see along the Oregon Coast with the best ocean views and gorgeous sunset walks on the beach.

Newport:

Newport is a huge draw due to the amazing aquarium. A must see! The town is cute and has great seafood restaurants.

Lincoln City:

Lincoln City is a long stretch of coast with all kinds of quirky art, fun shopping, and great food. Visit the Salishan Spa for the #1 spa experience in Oregon. If you come this way, definitely get lunch or dinner at Kylo's.

Cannon Beach:

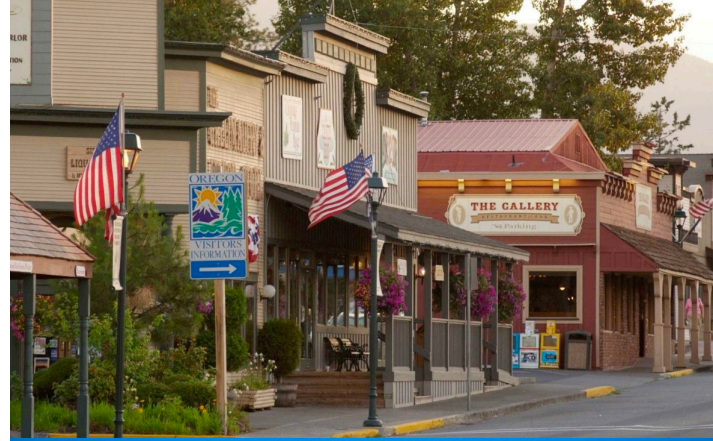

Cannon Beach is the #1 beach town in Oregon due to the famous Haystack Rock and lots of great restaurants and a cute shopping area.

Astoria:

Astoria is the northernmost town and has the Maritime Museum which has fascinating WWII history. Check out "The Column" and the "Goonies" house. There is a food truck by the ocean selling fish and chips is the best spot but get there early because they sell out! You can also watch huge ships as they navigate in or out of the Columbia River to the ocean. There is a major bridge to WA state that is also neat to see.

Tillamook:

A fan favorite tourist stop along the coast is The Tillamook Cheese Factory for their fun tours, great design, and fabulous ice cream, not to mention their cheese! They get very busy on weekends so plan accordingly.
